

WMPG's Blunt Youth Radio Project Presents the Great Northeast Radio Rally
USM Wishcamper Center, Portland, Maine, January 16, 2011
9:00 a.m. to 4:15 p.m.
Schedule

- 9:00-9:30 Registration
- 9:30-9:45 Welcome
- 9:45-11:00 A. Radio Rookies Listening Session — WNYC Radio Rookies
B. Producing Major Projects — Patty Wight - Independent Producer, The Race for the Blaine House: An Inside View of Five Campaigns, and Meaghan Vigeant - Producer, Oral History: Swan Island
- 11:15-12:15 A. Home Studios On the Cheap — Colin Kelley - Bates College, Blunt Youth Radio Alumnus
B. Sonic Science Reporting & Multimedia — Ari Daniel Shapiro - Independent Producer
C. Panel Discussion: Interviewing Musicians — Lara Seaver - WCLZ, Roy Ghim - WMPG, Suzanne Nance - MPBN, and Denis Howard - WERU, hosted by Ness Smith-Savedoff - Blunt Youth Radio Alumnus, Intern MPBN, WOBC DJ
- 12:15-1:30 LUNCH
Lunch tables: you can meet over lunch to talk informally about:
a. Organizations Every Independent Producer Should Know About: PRX and AIR
b. Making Radio Pieces about the Visual Arts — Jessica Lockhart - Independent Producer
- 1:30-2:45 A. Pitching to NPR (or Anywhere) — Andrea de Leon - NPR Eastern Bureau Chief, and Josh Gleason - Independent Producer, Salt Institute for Documentary Studies Alumnus
B. Producing Live Radio Shows — Kerry Donahue - Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism, Founder of WNYC's The Takeaway.
- 3:00-4:00 A. Youth Media Workshop — Jones Franzel - Generation PRX, Terrascope Youth Radio, and Blunt Youth Radio
B. Sonic Storytelling — Fred Greenhalgh - FinalRune Productions, WMPG
C. Listening Session — Share your own work with others. Hosted by Amanda Thieroff, Salt Institute for Documentary Studies Alumna
- 4:00-4:15 Wrap-Up/Audio Slam Orientation

7:00-9:00 AUDIO SLAM @ Space Gallery

Blunt Youth Radio Project is a program of WMPG, Greater Portland's community radio from the University of Southern Maine. This program has been funded in part by a grant from the Maine Arts Commission, an independent state agency supported by the National Endowment for the Arts.