WMPG, the community radio station at the University of Southern Maine, announces its 24th Annual Record and CD Sale, November 2, 2019 in USM's Sullivan Gym beginning at 10am. This is a fundraising event for the station. There is a two dollar admission charge.

The Record Sale features records, compact discs, tapes and other music related items plus books and magazines made available by more than 2 dozen vendors from around New England. WMPG also sells recordings donated by listeners. All genres of music will be available.

On the air for over 40 years, WMPG offers a wide variety of cultural and arts information programming including jazz, folk, rock, reggae, blues and community affairs as well as specialty programs from Greater Portland's Cambodian, African, Jewish, Latino, African-American, Vietnamese, Somali and Native American communities. Over 200 student and community volunteers create WMPG's diverse program schedule.

“Nearly six hundred people attended last year's sale,” said Jim Rand, coordinator for the event. “Our sale has more of a party or communal atmosphere than other record conventions, it's just a lot of fun!”

We are still accepting donations of vinyl LPs, CDs and turntables, amplifiers and speakers in good condition. For information about the sale, vendor options or donating to the sale call (207) 780-4424 or send an e-mail to Stationmanager@wmpg.org.
